Academic Integrity Policy:

The USC Annenberg School for Communication is committed to maintaining the highest standards of academic excellence. It endorses and follows the policies and procedures of the University Conduct Code as indicated in the SCampus. It is particularly important that you avoid plagiarism, cheating on exams, forging another student's signature on the attendance form or submitting a paper authored by anyone other than yourself as your own. If you are caught cheating on an assignment you will receive an F for the entire percentage allocated to that assignment or group of assignments. (e.g. If you plagiarize on one e-journal, you will receive a 0 on all of your e-journal assignments. If you cheat on an exam, you will receive an F on your exam) If you have any questions about these practices, confer with a faculty member.

Academic Resources

If you have a learning disability and need to take your exams in the Learning Center, please provide formal documentation at least two weeks prior to your exam. Please visit <http://www.usc.edu/student-affairs/asn/DSP/index.html> if you have questions about other accommodations for students with learning disabilities.
