Form 2: ACCENT/Student Responsibility Contract

I hereby agree to the conditions in this contract for the University of Southern California program and confirm that I have a genuine interest in the educational and cultural opportunities offered. Accordingly,

1. I have read ACCENT’s policies concerning Alcohol Use, Student Housing and other applicable policies within ACCENT’s Enrollment Forms. I have also read ACCENT’s policies concerning Harassment and Drug/Substance Abuse. Copies of these policies are found at (www.accentintl.com/policies). I understand all of these policies and agree to faithfully fulfill all of these requirements, terms, and conditions.

2. I understand that the sponsoring academic institution is ultimately responsible for the educational content, the duration of the program, modification and/or cancellation of the program and student discipline. This program is deemed to commence on the contracted arrival date and to terminate on the contracted departure date from Europe as indicated in program materials.

3. I agree that ACCENT reserves the discretion to reasonably modify my program schedule for logistical and service purposes, including without limitation, to conform to schedules of host country institutions, to conform to schedules of transportation companies and other service providers, to consolidate programs for viability purposes, etc. Such modifications shall be deemed to be standard conditions of my program, and shall not be grounds for withdrawal from the program or for any refund or credit.

4. I acknowledge that foreign travel, and living in European cities that are hundreds or thousands of years old, exposes me to risks, living conditions, inconveniences and standards that I do not normally encounter at home, and I hereby assume those risks as an adult. I accept that I will have to tolerate foreign customs, habits, noise, traffic, foods, cultural practices, laws, police requirements, living conditions, amenities such as air conditioning and heat, elevators, transportation schedules, etc., which are more onerous and less convenient than those I am used to at home. When I encounter such conditions that I may not like, I accept that I am responsible for resolving problems concerning them in mature and constructive ways and I realize that I may be required to accommodate myself to them as part of my experience of living in a foreign country. I also understand that it is my responsibility to promptly inform ACCENT’s local Center Director in writing if I encounter conditions that I believe should be remedied pursuant to the terms and conditions of this contract.

5. I understand that, while unlikely, there is always the possibility that I could become ill or incapacitated or involved with a foreign country’s police. I also understand that while ACCENT does not function in the capacity in loco parentis, I hereby authorize ACCENT to take emergency action it deems necessary including, without limitation, obtaining medical, hospitalization, legal or other assistance for me at my sole cost.

6. I agree to abide by the applicable laws of my host country, and I understand that I am solely responsible for the consequences and costs, legal and otherwise, that result should I become involved in any civil dispute or criminal matter under applicable laws.

7. I agree that I must conduct myself according to the policies and standards of the sponsoring academic institution, and those of ACCENT, and I agree to cooperate with representatives of the sponsoring institution, ACCENT staff, and my fellow participants for our mutual benefit. I understand that misconduct by me, including but not limited to, possession or use of prohibited substances or drugs, misuse of alcohol, violation of the sponsoring school’s strict attendance requirements, and student conduct codes, violence, destruction of property, offensive public behavior, behavior which endangers others or myself, or violation of other policies is likely to result in my expulsion from the program without refund of fees, or recourse, and my return home will be at my expense.

8. I understand that my friends and relatives are not entitled or permitted to attend any portion of the program or utilize my residence or any ACCENT facilities which are reserved exclusively for officially enrolled participants who have paid applicable fees.

9. I agree that neither ACCENT, nor its employees, nor its representatives shall be liable to me, directly or indirectly, for consequences beyond ACCENT’s reasonable direct control, including without limitation, Acts of God, criminal acts such as theft, war, terrorism, strikes or other labor actions, acts of government authorities, acts by persons who are not employees of ACCENT, pandemics or epidemics or other health threats, acts by employees of transportation companies, and others.

10. I understand that ACCENT urges me to protect my personal property, valuables, and other property for which I am responsible by purchasing commercial insurance, and whether I insure or not, I agree that ACCENT shall not be liable for any losses or damage to my personal property, valuables, and other property, and that I alone shall be responsible, for any losses which might occur whether through theft, damage, or otherwise.

WARNING: THIS IS A 2 PAGE DOCUMENT AND BOTH PAGES MUST BE RETURNED TOGETHER.

11. I agree that this contract is between me and ACCENT as the sole parties thereto, that my parents or guardians are not parties to this contract, (and I have so informed them) because I am 18 years of age or older, I have independent rights of privacy and that this legal relationship is controlling irrespective of who might be paying all or part of my costs to ACCENT. Nevertheless, I understand that ACCENT reserves the right to discuss and transact business concerning my account directly with my parents, guardians, and others who may be paying for all or part of my costs arising in connection with this contract.

12. I understand that ACCENT endeavors to respect each student’s privacy. Accordingly, I am responsible for informing my family members, friends, and others wishing to contact me of the particulars of my contact information including my address, telephone number and other such information. However, ACCENT will reasonably relay to me a request from someone wishing to contact me, and upon being so informed, I may then decide whether to contact that person or not. I also understand that ACCENT reserves the right, in circumstances that it deems to be business necessity, emergency, or health or safety matters, to communicate directly with others regarding my role and activities in connection with the program, including without limitation, the sponsoring institution, and the foreign host institution(s).

13. I understand that any questions about program fees, payments or refunds must be addressed to the sponsoring academic institution, which solely determines the amounts of all fees, payment and refunds. I understand that if I leave the program early, I will receive no refund from ACCENT. I further understand that if I withdraw from the program, I shall not be entitled to participate in any program activities, and I must immediately vacate program housing.

14. Furthermore, I am responsible for informing anyone making payments on my behalf that, in the event ACCENT determines that any refunds are due on my account, ACCENT will make any such refunds payable directly to me as the contracting party, irrespective of the source of funds.

15. I understand that this contract shall become effective upon receipt by ACCENT, and that it shall be interpreted and governed by the laws of California, in the County of San Francisco.

16. I understand that fulfillment of my above commitments is a requirement for me to remain eligible to participate throughout this program, and in order to receive the benefits of ACCENT's services. I agree to comply with all of them, and I understand that should I fail to do so, it shall be considered to be a material breach of this contract which then may be terminated without refund or recourse.

Form 3: Alcohol Agreement

REGARDING STUDENT’S FULL PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY AND ASSUMPTION OF ALL RISKS FOR ANY AND ALL ALCOHOL USE OR CONSUMPTION AND ABSOLUTE RELEASE OF ACCENT AND WAIVER OF LIABILITY BY ACCENT, AGREEING TO HOLD HARMLESS, DEFEND AND INDEMNIFY ACCENT.

1. ACCENT programs are located in European countries which have laws prohibiting, controlling, and regulating uses and consumption of alcoholic drinks including wine, beer and liquor, especially by minors.

2. Each University or College sponsoring an ACCENT program may have its own prohibitions and restrictions which it requires to be applied to the use and consumption of alcohol by its students enrolled in ACCENT programs in foreign countries.

3. Accordingly, each ACCENT student is individually and personally responsible for complying with all legal requirements of the nation where they are located, the rules and regulations of his/her sponsoring University or College and ACCENT’s requirements as described in this Agreement and otherwise.

4. Any and all consumption or usage of alcohol by an ACCENT student is wholly the student’s own personal responsibility. Each student is responsible to inform himself or herself of the country’s laws, his/her University’s or College’s rules, and ACCENT rules before using or consuming alcoholic beverages. Legally underage students are absolutely prohibited from consuming alcohol, and may be expelled from an ACCENT program without recourse or refund if they violate this rule.

5. ACCENT does not act in loco parentis, and a student’s full responsibility for complying with alcohol consumption rules is not reduced in any way whatsoever whether or not ACCENT may, or may not act as an alcohol “policeman”. Warning: the most severe consequences may be applied by ACCENT to any violation of applicable rules, whether or not such rules were previously enforced, and irrespective of how they were previously enforced.

6. Consequences for prohibited uses or abuses of alcohol, at ACCENT’s sole discretion, include without limitation: temporary suspension, probation, immediate dismissal from an ACCENT program, and eviction from residence facilities, without recourse or refund.

7. ACCENT acknowledges that the cultures of host countries, including England, France, Spain and Italy, may promote the consumption of alcohol from time to time: whether wine, beer, liquor or other beverages. When ACCENT deems it to be appropriate, ACCENT may provide occasional social or program access to alcoholic beverages on a strictly optional basis. On such occasions each student remains wholly and individually responsible for complying with applicable rules irrespective of usage by others, and no student is required to or expected to consume alcohol.

8. ACCENT’s good standing, acceptance, and reputation in its host country is adversely affected if and when ACCENT students are arrested or otherwise involved in civil or criminal proceedings where alcohol use is implicated. ACCENT reserves full discretion to prohibit the use of alcohol by specific students, and/or all students, or to establish conditions for such use or consumption while enrolled in an ACCENT program, whether such use is on ACCENT-sponsored premises or otherwise.

9. As an ACCENT student I understand and agree that ACCENT will not assume any responsibility whatsoever should I, or another student, choose to consume alcohol, and I understand that alcohol is a drug which can cause serious health consequences and unacceptable behavioral manifestations.

10. In consideration for my being permitted to be enrolled in an ACCENT program, I hereby accept all the above conditions, and I agree to conform to all applicable rules and regulations. I understand that even one violation of such rules and regulations may result in my immediate dismissal from ACCENT programs without refund or recourse, or other severe penalties, at ACCENT’s sole discretion.

11. I understand and agree that ACCENT’s policies apply to me whether I consume alcohol on or off ACCENT premises, so long as I am enrolled in an ACCENT program. I understand that these policies include rules that may prohibit consumption of alcohol in the public spaces of student residences.

12. I hereby agree to hold harmless, indemnify and defend ACCENT, its employees, agents, and representatives from any claims, costs including attorneys’ fees, actions, arbitrations, lawsuits, and otherwise, arising out of or in connection with use or consumption of alcohol by me while I am a participant in an ACCENT program and/or utilizing facilities provided by ACCENT.

13. I understand that I have a right to consult with my own attorney before signing this document which I agree shall be construed to be a General Release and Waiver of all rights and claims: past, present, and future, against ACCENT, its employees, agents, representatives, contractors, successors, and assigns, directly or indirectly relating to the use or consumption of alcohol by me.

14. I further understand that I shall not be entitled to participate in any ACCENT program unless I agree to this agreement.

Form 5: Housing Contract

Acorn Management Services Student Housing Contract
For London Study Abroad Programs

This contract is by and between ______________________________ (Student's name), a student participating in the London Program, and ACORN MANAGEMENT SERVICES (“Acorn”), an English corporation. ACORN MANAGEMENT SERVICES may delegate some or all of its authority hereunder to ACCENT INTERNATIONAL CONSORTIUM FOR ACADEMIC PROGRAMS ABROAD, LTD (“ACCENT”), an English Corporation.

TERM OF CONTRACT
1. This contract is a binding commitment by the student to live in accommodations provided by Acorn for the period indicated below, which begins at 2:00 p.m. on the first date of occupancy and ends at 10:00 a.m. on the final date of occupancy.

2. No refunds will be made for housing if a student leaves before the end of the period reserved for any reason including withdrawal or expulsion from the academic program. In the event of withdrawal or expulsion, the student will be required to leave the residence.

ROOM ASSIGNMENT
3. The College/University, ACCENT or Acorn will assign the student to a specific room without regard to race, religion, sexual orientation, or national origin, and does not guarantee specific rooms, buildings, or roommates. Students will have the opportunity in advance to request a specific roommate, but while a reasonable effort will be made to accommodate these requests, no guarantee is made.

4. Acorn reserves the right to consolidate space by changing the room assignment of a student occupying a room with other comparable space available. Acorn may also assign a new roommate at any time during the period when an assigned room has a vacant space.

RIGHT OF ENTRY
5. Acorn reserves the right, at any time, to enter the apartment for any reason allowed by law, including but not limited to, showing the space to prospective residents; cleaning, inventory, inspection and maintenance; to make repairs, alterations or improvements; to supply necessary or agreed upon services; in case of emergency or fire; pursuant to court order; or when the student has abandoned or surrendered the premises. Unless it is impractical to do so, Acorn will give the student reasonable notice of its intent to enter.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES
6. Official quiet hours in the apartments are from 10:00 p.m. until 8:00 a.m., 7 days per week. Any student who is found to be making noise during these times or making excessive noise at any other time, is subject to disciplinary measures up to and including removal from the residences with no refund or recourse. When a specific person causing disruption cannot be identified, all occupants of the apartment will be considered in breach and held equally responsible for the noise and disruption.

7. Care and cleaning of student rooms and common areas is the responsibility of the student. Any student who does not exercise his or her responsibility for private and/or common areas and whose actions result in undue damage may be required to leave the apartment complex and pay for damages. Students are required to launder their bed linens and towels regularly. Free washing/drying machines are provided for this purpose.

8. Any student who uses a telephone in a manner deemed to be defrauding Acorn or the telephone company, including but not limited to accepting reverse charges calls, will be required to leave the housing and to pay all outstanding accounts related to same.

9. Each student should make sure his/her personal belongings are insured. Insurance coverage should include laptops or equipment borrowed from the College/University which he/she may be using. For security reasons, it is each individual student’s responsibility to make sure that his/her apartment door and the main door of his/her residence are locked at all times.

10. Each student is bound by Acorn Apartment rules which prohibit:
   - Use of cooking appliances other than in designated kitchen area.
   - Open-flame candles, fireworks, ammunition, explosives, pyrotechnics or flammable materials in the apartment complex.
   - Firearms or weapons of any kind. Acorn, upon knowing of the presence of any weapon will terminate this contract immediately without refund or recourse, the police will be notified immediately, and the student may be subject to disciplinary and/or other legal action.
   - Pets in the apartments / apartment complex.
   - Tampering with fire alarm protection equipment or fire alarm apparatus.
   - Disruptive use of stereos, amplified sound equipment or other devices at any time of the day or night.
   - Sports in apartments, hallways, walkways, or public corridors.
   - Overnight guests, including relatives or other program participants. All non-residents must be out of the apartment complex by 10:00 p.m. If overnight guest/guests are found in the apartment, all occupants of the apartment will be considered in breach and held equally responsible and subject to disciplinary action.

11. Possession or use of illegal drugs or drug paraphernalia is absolutely prohibited in and around Acorn properties. The police will be informed of any breaches of this Prohibition. Possession or use of illegal drugs or drug paraphernalia in Acorn apartments will result in an immediate cancel
12. Acorn apartments are NON-SMOKING apartments. Students are NOT permitted to smoke in any area of the apartments, including their rooms, and all public areas.

ACORN RESPONSIBILITIES

14. It is understood that all apartments and furnishings shall be clean and in good condition, and that all utilities and appliances will be in working order, on the first date of occupancy.

15. Students should report any maintenance problem that arises in the apartments to Acorn immediately. Each student will receive instructions for reporting maintenance problems to Acorn (directly as well as via ACCENT) during orientation in London. Under normal circumstances, maintenance requests will be responded to within 1 working day if reported before 10 a.m., although final repairs may take longer. Acorn will keep the students informed of their progress in resolving maintenance problems.

16. Acorn agrees to act reasonably and in good faith to fulfill its promises as outlined in this agreement. Acorn reserves the right to make reasonable substitutions and to provide comparable accommodations if circumstances beyond its reasonable control so require.

LIABILITY

17. Charges may be billed to the student’s account for any housing charges or damages, excess utilities costs, any fines incurred and any books or other property not returned in proper order to the ACCENT Center overseas, as well as other damages or charges in connection with overnight excursions or hotel stays, if applicable. Student understands that each student is jointly and severally liable with the student’s roommate(s), for the condition of the room and its furnishings, if individual liability cannot be determined. Charges, if any, are normally applied within three months of departure from London, along with an itemized accounting of each charge applied.

18. The student agrees that Acorn and ACCENT shall have no liability for the loss of, theft of, or damage or destruction of any property kept in a student apartment. It is understood that Acorn provides no insurance or financial protection for student’s personal property.

19. The student assumes full liability for any loss or damage caused to the rooms or furnishings provided by Acorn to the student, and the student agrees to pay any and all damage charges upon presentation of an itemized invoice of charges. Student understands that each student is jointly and severally liable with the student’s roommate(s), for the condition of the room and its furnishings, and with all other residents of the building for the condition of the building and its furnishings, if individual liability cannot be determined. Additionally, the student will be held liable in those instances when his/her guests do not abide by rules or regulations outlined in this contract, and for any behavior on their part which is detrimental to the welfare of residents or the physical property of the building.

20. Your personal safety and health is a primary concern of ACCENT. Accordingly, you are advised to be observant of conditions in your residence that you suspect may pose undue risks of fire, or other risks to your health or safety. Please report the details in writing to the ACCENT Center Director so he or she may take prompt remedial action.

21. English law and procedures shall supersede in the event of any conflict between English law and procedures and the provisions of this contract, or Acorn policies or ACCENT policies.

JURISDICTION

22. Any dispute or claim whatsoever arising out of or relating directly or indirectly to this Contract and/or the accommodations provided shall be governed by English law, and the venue for resolving any dispute or claim shall be London, England.

This is a binding legal contract by and between the undersigned and Acorn Management Services for the period specified under point #1 in Term of Contract. Student participant agrees and understands the provisions of the contract.

Form 6: Acorn Wireless Network Registration Form

In order to establish internet service for your arrival, please provide the requested details below. Please print using CAPITAL letters and fill out all information completely. Incomplete forms will prevent your account from being ready on your arrival.

First Name      Last Name

Email Address

Wireless Card MAC Address Required

A MAC address, short for Media Access Control address (or Physical Address on PC machines and Physical ID on Apple computers), is a unique code assigned to most forms of networking hardware. The MAC address provides a sequence of 6 pairs of alphanumerical characters identifying a network device (Ethernet or wireless card). Many secure networks use this unique sequence of numbers to monitor and restrict connections on closed wireless networks.

To learn how to locate your MAC address, go to: http://www-dcn.fnal.gov/DCG-Docs/mac
Windows Vista users will need to go to: http://www.cavsplace.net/content/view/49/29/

Form 7: Arrival Information

If you will be part of the group flight organized by your school, check here:

If you are making your own flight arrangements, please provide your arrival information below (Note: this information must be provided even if you plan to arrive early to Europe). Most international flights arrive the day after you leave the U.S. Please make sure you verify the date you will actually arrive in London.

REMEMBER: If you are arriving independently and are not able to meet the group transfer, you are responsible for checking in at the ACCENT Center between 9 AM and 5 PM the day the program begins in order to receive orientation materials and attend required program events. It is advisable to arrive into London no later than 2:30 PM in order to check-in at the ACCENT Center before it closes. Participants arriving after 5 PM may ring the bell at the FSU Centre and receive their orientation and housing materials from the reception staff on duty, however students arriving after 5 PM are considered late arrivals and may miss required program events.

If you have not yet finalized your travel plans, please hold this form and submit it to your school’s program contact once your plans are final.
